

Hospitality events at Guildford's G Live for 2024

If you're looking for a fun-filled night of entertainment, then G Live is the place to be this year. Get rid of the January blues and dance the night away with their fabulous party nights and events.

This spring, enjoy a fun-filled evening of pure 80s music and dancing with Tropicana Nights 80s (23rd February). Whether you go all out in your favourite 80s outfit or not, you are bound to get in the party mood as soon as you walk into the room.

If the 90s and noughties are more your scene then bring the sing with MASSAOKE (16th March), the UK's biggest mass karaoke that has played huge crowds including Glastonbury, Latitude and the Edinburgh Fringe. Expect sequins, spandex, rockstar poses and infinite air guitar.

As we look towards the Summer other events include Fanny Galore's Biggest Bingo Bash (Sat 25th May), where Fanny will bring all her shows together for an explosive event. Joined by her very cheeky butlers Dick and Roger, her sassy dancers and her glamorous assistant, Fanny will be filling the night with music, singing, dancing, show games, and of course, Bingo! Brand-new for G Live, Common People host a 90s Indie Night (28th June), featuring hits from artists including Blur, Nirvana, Pulp, RATM, Primal Scream, Happy Mondays and many more.

With a reputation for hosting some of the best stand-up comedians on the circuit, the venue's Hellfire Comedy Club is back for its regular monthly event – complete with curry – shining a spotlight on exciting up-and-coming talent.
