

Live the independent lifestyle you've always dreamed of in Surrey

ADVERTORIAL FEATURE

At Pegasus, part of Lifestory, our selection of high specification one and two bedroom homes are expertly designed and located to get the very best out of later living. Pegasus Cobham Bowers is the latest gem in our later living communities, with a breathtaking range of homes, situated in an idyllic location with views over the luscious lawns of Anyards Road recreation ground. Stylish and spacious, the apartments share a sophisticated indoor pavilion, overlooking a beautifully landscaped courtyard garden. With large skylight windows, contemporary art and beautifully crafted sociable spaces, this is the perfect spot for catching up with friends and neighbours over a glass of wine or coffee, or taking a moment to relax and read on the sun-dappled sofas.

In nearby Dorking, you can find our collection of homes at Taylor Place, featuring a sociable and serene communal lounge. Taylor Place is also home to a welcoming studio space, which hosts weekly yoga and meditation classes. Our apartments feature sweeping balconies, overlooking the beautiful architecture of the development, or the neighbouring grounds of Pippbrook House. Prices start from £399,000 for a one-bedroom apartment which are also available to rent from £2,200 pcm.

With options to Buy, Rent or Rent to Buy, you can choose a home that fits your specific needs. The opportunity to rent allows for flexibility and peace of mind, that you will not need to sell your home in the future. Additionally, renting frees up capital to spend as you please, allowing you to live in style and comfort.
